Membership Benefits

Advocacy

The AGC and the AGC/C are leaders in protecting your professional interests. Whether it's national legislation or a state licensing bill we are fighting for you and protecting your business everyday to ensure that laws and regulations enhance, not limit, your business operations.

Networking & Involvement

The best way to build your business is to get involved. The AGC/C holds monthly committee meetings, conferences and seminars as well as general membership meetings in Denver, Northern Colorado and Colorado Springs.

Education

The AGC/C provides a wealth of education classes, taught by leading industry professionals, from mid-September to early May. Topics include safety, management, technology, environmental, green building & LEED and industry-specific issues. Classes are held at the AGC headquarters in downtown Denver, in Northern or Southern CO, or they can be delivered at a specific company location upon request.

“AGC has been an integral tool in growing my business. The access to the individuals I would like to meet and serve is unparalleled. It is the perfect forum to meet, work closely with and assist general contractors as well as subcontractors.”

Chris Walters P.T., MBA, Vice President, Network Insurance Services, LLC
